

Homecoming Day Slated Saturday At Local School

The Tahoe Truckee Wolverines will meet Carson City High in the annual homecoming game here Saturday in what promises to be the outstanding sports event of the year.

The day's activities will start with a parade at 10:30 from the elementary school to the high school where the Junior Varsity contest will start at noon.

Between halves of the varsity game, the Homecoming Queen will be crowned. Candidates for this honor are Marlene Rodgers, Sandy Fellows, Ruth Poulsen, Kathy Barker and Janice Roth.

A homecoming dance will be held at the gymnasium at 8 p. m. Saturday night.

Still smarting from their resounding defeat at the hands of the Colfax team Friday night at Auburn, the Wolverines are determined to give the visiting Carson crew a hard fight. Colfax won 26 to 0, scoring in every quarter as the Wolverines failed to get things going and were on the defensive throughout the game.

The Junior Varsity also lost to Colfax 13 to 0.

Greg Moore, Wolverine half-back, received the outstanding player award for the week on the defensive team. No award was made for the offensive player.

Many High Grads Continue Studies

The 1962 graduating class of Tahoe Truckee High School, 82 strong, has once again displayed a high interest in continuing education beyond the secondary level.

Fifty-nine per cent of the class has enrolled in institutions of higher learning, another three per cent in specialized training schools, four per cent have enlisted in the naval branch of the armed services and 34 per cent have gone into the labor market directly out of high school.

Of this latter group, five have joined the married ranks.

The college enrollees are distributed as follows: Sierra College, 28; Nevada, 4; Stephens College (Missouri), 3; University of the Pacific, 2; and one each at Sacramento State, Stanford, Denver, Reedley, Los Angeles City, Cal Poly, Chico State, San Francisco State, University of San Francisco, Washington and University of California at Davis.

Brockett for the past four years has been in charge of an insurance concern in the capital city and comes here highly recommended.

Mrs. Brockett and the couple's daughter, a senior in high school, will remain in Sacramento until the close of school and will then join Brockett here to make their permanent home.

Radio Church Will Hold Convention At Squaw Valley

More than 6,000 members of the Radio Church of God will invade Squaw Valley October 12 for an eight-day conference which will end October 21.

This will be the second convention for this group and this year's attendance is expected to be double that of 1961.

Details are being handled by the Squaw Valley-North Lake Tahoe-Truckee Donner Convention Bureau.

Services will be held in Blyth arena with a short service on the 12th and the all-day sessions to begin on the 13th.

West Tahoe Ired By Freeway Plan

MEERKS BAY—Residents along the west shore of Lake Tahoe are vigorously protesting plans by the state division of highways to install a freeway through the picturesque region and resent reports that a public meeting held September 20 resulted in an equal number of protests and agreements with the state.

"As a matter of fact," one spokesman declared, "the expressed views were over 90 per cent against the building of the freeway. Of the 230 or more people attending, only four or five spoke in favor of the project. These were people who have a commercial interest in the region and are not concerned with the esthetic values of one of the few remaining natural beauty areas of the state."

Division of highways spokesmen stressed the fact that more and more vehicles are using the route and that in future years, provision must be made for this influx.

Most residents of the region, however, do not wish the highway to be located through the parkland and will demand that the state, if it builds a freeway put it away from the lake.

Highway officials said plans could not be completed for at least 10 years.

SON OF FORMER NEWS EDITOR HERE VISITS

Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Smith of Nice, Lake County were here Friday when they visited the Truckee cemetery where his father, W. H. M. Smith is buried. The latter was the crusading editor of the early day Truckee Republican before he was shot, following an argument in the local post office in 1911.

Friday's visitor gifted the Sierra Sun and Truckee Republican owners with three issues of the paper, two in 1907, and one of December 21, 1911, the day before the former editor was killed, according to his son.

Area Fails To Get Benefits As Sales Tax Is Allocated

How much of the sales tax returned to Nevada County was missed by Truckee and Donner for not being incorporated may be estimated in figures released this week by Paul R. Leake, third district member of the state board of equalization.

For the second quarter of 1962, the report shows a total of $68,786 collected in the county. Of this, Grass Valley received $17,074, Nevada City, $8,264 and the unincorporated portion of the county, of which this community is a major part, received $43,448. The entire $43,448 went into the county coffers to be distributed as seen fit by the county officials.

It is hard to estimate just what portion of this would have been received by this district under incorporation, but the amount would have been substantial since summer sales particularly are high in this area.

To top off a bad deal for Truckee-Donner is the fact that both Nevada City and Grass Valley are petitioning the board of supervisors for a larger share of the tax collected in those cities. They now receive 70 per cent, with 30 per cent going to the county, but there is every indication that they will be granted up to 90 per cent as their share.

Of the $184,805 collected in Placer County, the unincorporated areas received $75,277 with Roseville getting $56,159; Auburn $38,364; Colfax, $5,196; Lincoln, $7,329 and Rocklin, $2,480.

EXPERIMENTAL FIRE DECLARED SUCCESS

The prepared four-acre experimental fire on Billy Hill near Hobart Mills burned Monday while technicians conducted tests to determine the behavior of flames and methods of combating them. Clive Countryman, head of the Pacific Southwest Forest and Range Experimental Station at Berkeley, said the project was successful in every way and that findings will be analyzed for continued study.

The fire was kept confined to the area designated and provided an excellent study, officials said.

DAN SHEEHAN, BRIDE WILL VISIT MOTHER

TAHOE CITY — Dan Sheehan and his bride are expected to visit his mother, Mrs. Pauline Sheehan, soon coming from his U. S. Marine Air Corp base at Torrance. Dan and his young wife were married in August, about a month before the wedding of his brother, Thomas, which occurred on September 8.

Denney and a short devotion was brought by the president, Mrs. Dallas Hughes. Letters from the three missionary families who are partially supported by the church were read.

JERRY BECK IS WED TO FORT BRAGG GIRL

At the Reno Wedding Chapel Saturday Jerry W. Beck, formerly of Truckee and son of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Beck of this community, took as his bride Miss Margaret Jean Faye of Fort Bragg.

The bridegroom was recently discharged after serving in the army.

Attending the couple at the ceremony were James Silva and Terry Beck both of Truckee.

WALTER M. BARRETT

It appears to us that the Grass Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce is getting a little beyond the scope of its jurisdiction in urging the abolishment of the offices of constable in Nevada County. These offices were provided by law and the constables are elected by the voters of the districts they serve at salaries well within the margin of economy. They have specific and necessary duties to perform, and if they fail to meet the requirements, voters are privileged to replace them. The junior chamber suggests that the constables be replaced by "special" deputies sheriff and make them appointees of the sheriff's office and we presume on regular deputy salaries. This seems to lack the economy suggested in the resolution and would take more public officials off the ballots and place their appointment in the hands of a few. This seems to us less democratic than the current procedure.

MANY LOCAL BOYS ON SIERRA SKI TEAM

One of the best turnouts in years has been greeted by Ski Coach Paul Chesney of Sierra College, with the veteran coach optimistic the team will be as good as last season's.

Returning veterans are Nick Stone, Walt Shopier, Dick Lawrence, Terry McBride, Jim Schull, Charles White and Bill Eber Laquard. McBride was recently granted another season of eligibility because he suffered a broken leg before last season's competition.

Newcomers on the squad are Bob Forster, Larry Hoffman, Gary Powell, Ken Wilson, Bill Notley, Barry Leamon, Dennis Ludlow, Joseph Stella, Dean Peterson, Dennis Griffith and Sam Medford.

Top women skiers in competition this winter will include Sally Twining, Linda Giovannoni and Pat Yanes. Another dozen skiers are expected out before the winter sport season begins.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest E. Peters of Al Tahoe welcomed their son, Steven Robert on October 1. He tipped the scales at 8 pounds, 3 ounces.

BLASTING DELAYING HIGHWAY 40 TRAVEL

Blasting was expected to begin Tuesday or Wednesday on U. S. 40 freeway construction in the area one-half mile east of the junction with State Sign Route 20—which is approximately three miles west of Cisco Grove.

California Division of Highways officials at the Marysville district office said it is intended that delays be a maximum 20 minutes.

However, due to the nature of the existing fractured rock above the blasting area—which is immediately adjacent to the present highway—unscheduled longer delays may occur if excessive material is brought down.

TAX RATE VARIES IN PLACER COUNTY

AUBURN — The combined tax rate for 1962-63 in the county ranges from a low of $4.30 to $22.65 for each $100 assessed valuation.

Treasurer Tax Collector Earl Corin said the low rate is an area near Tahoe City, and the high figure is for the Sierra Lake subdivision near Soda Springs.

Brief Ceremony Held As Airport Is Open To Traffic

With only a minimum of fanfare, the Truckee Airport was opened to traffic Sunday with the presentation of a permit to Chairman Jack Houlgate of the board of directors of the airport district by Forest Fiorini of Turlock, chairman of the California Aeronautics Commission.

A score of planes, all privately owned, tested the runway and pilots were enthusiastic over the new field.

Formal dedication of the field will take place next spring.

In the meantime, work will continue on securing a base operator, having landing lights and other facilities installed to provide one of the best trunk type airfields in northern California.

The field now provides for the demand for air service to the various resorts and recreational areas in the North Lake Tahoe and Truckee-Donner areas.

A disappointing attendance greeted one of the best Constitution Day programs ever put on here by Truckee Lodge of Masons Saturday at Masonic Hall.

Paul D. Ward, legislative secretary to Governor Edmund G. Brown, brought a rather dry subject to life in his talk, impressing his listeners with his knowledge of the constitution and its effect upon the world in general.

Wayne Philippi, chairman of the meeting said Ward's talk was a vital lesson and he expressed his sincere regret that more people could not hear the message by the gifted speaker. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Building Plans To Be Submitted For Official Approval

Final draft of details of the county building at Truckee and the addition to the court house at Nevada City will be presented to the board of supervisors October 16, the board was advised last week.

If the completed plans, being prepared by Malcom Mau, Sacramento architect, are approved at an early date, bids for construction of the buildings on a proposed lease-purchase plan, can be advertised in December, the board was advised.

Only minor changes in the plans were suggested and it is expected they will be approved formally by the board at the meeting October 16.

Dog Poisoner Is Active In Truckee

A dog poisoner, one of the most insidious of all criminals, is apparently operating in Truckee.

At least three pets have fallen victim to the strychnine dispenser and other owners are being warned to watch their animals throughout the area as the poison is not being confined to any particular district.

Blackie, Henry Loehr's big, genial dog was the first to fall victim and died en route to a vet. The Bruce Grow family lost their dog in a like manner and Charles Fink was able to save his pet after it was stricken. How many others have been poisoned was not reported.

CONSTABLE MATTER DELAYED BY BOARD

The Nevada County Board of Supervisors Monday put over until October 16 meeting the recommendation by the Grass Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce that the offices of constable in the county be eliminated and the duties assigned to the sheriff's department.

A representative of the Jaycees appeared before the board Monday urging the action and was advised by Chairman H. G. Loehr that under the law the posts could not be abolished but that by board action could be made so unattractive by low salary that no one would apply for the jobs.

One Man Killed In Auto Accidents; Others Are Hurt

One man was killed and several others injured in five motor vehicle accidents in this area during the weekend, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Dead is Charles Alfred Baston, 35, Mount Rose, California, employed as a cook at Sunnyside Lodge at Tahoe City, who was killed when the car he was driving on Route 89 half a mile north of Meeks Bay, left the road, struck a tree and overturned in a ditch.

Baston apparently was killed about 3 a. m. but his body was not discovered until 7 a. m. and was taken to the Tahoe McCormick Mortuary at South Tahoe. Patrolman William Teurman of El Dorado County made the investigation. Baston had borrowed the car from James K. Tasker, Tahoe City, also employed at Sunnyside.

Family Injured

Both Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Geelhoude of Houston, Texas, were taken to the Tahoe Forest Hospital with serious injuries Saturday at 6:30 p. m. after their car, traveling south struck the dual wheels of a big semi-trailer operated by Ralph Hulme, 58, Hagerman, Idaho near the Soda Springs Hotel. Geelhoude told Patrolman Glenn Virus he was blinded by the sun and did not see the truck in front of him.

The couple's one and a half year old daughter, Maritzka, was not injured and was cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Jack DeRyk, the former operator of the ambulance which took the couple to the hospital.

Speed Blamed

Excessive speed was blamed by Patrolman Dan Davis for the accident Saturday at 3:30 p. m. which sent Douglas E. Carter, 20, driver, and Gilbert Yates, 19, both of Reno to the hospital after their car overturned near the Squaw Valley road on Route 89.

Three Injured

Peter L. Hack, 24, San Luis Obispo, and his two passengers, Gregory Larson, 22, and Beverly A. Larsen, 23, both of Belmont, were hospitalized Sunday at 6:05 p. m. when the car in which they were riding near the William Kent Campground at Tahoe City, hooked bumpers with one driven by Floyd E. Simmons, 65, Denver, causing the Hack car to overturn.

Patrolman Glenn Virus cited Simmons for making an illegal turn.

Kenneth Osburn, 22, Truckee, suffered severe face injuries Friday morning when he turned off the highway east of Truckee at dawn to hunt deer and his Jeep crashed into a chain stretched across the road. The vehicle was badly damaged and Osburn fortunately escaped serious injuries.

Because of the uncertain light, the driver did not see the chain until it ripped into the vehicle. He was taken to the Tahoe Forest Hospital by Pete Tallant of Donner State Park who came by shortly after the accident.

PLACER CHAMBER IS OPPOSED TO PROP. 23

SUNNYSIDE — At the annual meeting of the Placer County Chamber of Commerce held at Sunnyside Lodge a resolution was adopted vigorously opposing the proposed reapportionment of the state senate.

Proposition No. 23 on the November 6 ballot would provide 10 new state senators all from major population centers, particularly Los Angeles County. The chamber's action was taken after Senator Albert S. Rodda of Sacramento delivered a speech against the proposition and a letter from Senator Ronald G. Cameron of Auburn was read expressing a similar stand.

INCLINE VILLAGE — Completion by the first of the year—on schedule—was indicated for the new $3,000,000 Incline Village sewer system and treatment plant on Nevada's north shore of Lake Tahoe, according to a month end report from contractors.

Underground installations including more than 50,000 feet of pipe—nearly ten miles—have been laid, ranging in size from giant 18 inch mains down to six inch laterals. Approximately 110 manholes, throughout the sewer area, provide access and control to the system.

CONVENTION GROUP MAKES FINAL PLANS

CRYSTAL BAY—More than 30 North Sierra Lake Tahoe and Truckee-Donner businessmen met Saturday to finalize organization of the new Squaw Valley-North Tahoe-Truckee-Donner Convention Bureau, in the Nevada Room of the Nevada Lodge at Crystal Bay. The group consisted of representatives from the six areas of the region, all of which had previously heard and approved the civic convention sales and area-wide advertising plan proposed by Eric Johnson, a bay area advertising agency.

The primary purpose of the session was to insure adequate financing for the new bureau. The group elected area captains who will contact all businesses within the next two weeks to obtain pledges of support from new business generated by convention sales.

A spokesman for the new civic enterprise stated that organizers of the bureau, James McCafferty, Ivan Tofft, Clarence Richard and Fred Schultz, were gratified on the public acceptance of their program and the culmination of complete cooperation between separate districts of the entire area. He also said that the bureau and the promise of continued use of the

AFFAIRS OF STATE

SACRAMENTO—(CNS) — Probably the older one gets, the oftener the urge to reminisce comes along, and every so often this column has to succumb to the urge.

Just last week, the old Yolo Causeway became a thing of the past, and motorists skip across the one-time impassable barrier between Davis and Sacramento on what is now U. S. 40, on a brand new highway, which soon will become a six-lane portion of the Interstate system.

It was not so back in 1916, when this writer crossed the old causeway the day it opened. Forty-six years ago, the causeway was a marvel of engineering. It was a two-lane highway, set high above the by-pass, and the winter floods were no longer a barrier to free traffic.

Prior to the opening of the causeway, there never had been a road to Sacramento direct from Davis. It was necessary to drive to Woodland, and cut across the by-pass over a road that today wouldn't be as good as a poor mountain road.

That first trip back in 1916 was made in a sevenpassenger Pierce-Arrow stage, one of the few automobiles in the town of Winters. This was also during a time when the public utilities commission hadn't been heard of, and no "certificate of convenience and necessity" was needed to operate a stage.

In fact, the operator of the town livery stable invested in the Pierce Arrow as he began to see the decline of the horse and buggy.

The Pierce-Arrow clipped along over the new causeway at about 30 miles an hour, but then, no one was in much of a hurry. The 40 miles per hour made by the only Hudson super-six in town was considered too fast, and 60 per was a rate for race tracks only.

The two-lane causeway, with its growing dangers and increasing number of accidents, lasted until the mid-30's, when the depression resulted in the state "saving the northwest" by buying millions of board feet of redwood timber, from which it constructed the present four-lane causeway as an addition to the original 1916 work.

It is this causeway which will be removed, and the redwood timbers no doubt will be put to some other constructive usage, as they no doubt are as good today as they were when installed nearly 30 years ago.

Another cause for reminiscing at this time is the opening of the Benicia-Martinez bridge, between those two cities. Although this bridge does not replace the railroad bridge, this having been constructed some years ago, it does bring back memories of the time when going to San Francisco from Winters entailed catching a train about 6:30 a. m., traveling to Elmira, and changing trains to Benicia.

At Benicia, the train was broken up and run on a ferry, taken across Carquinez Straits, and made up once again at Martinez. Thence to Oakland mole, and another ferry ride to San Francisco. This was a trip full of excitement, as small boys were privileged to watch the ferry engines both on the train and passenger ferries.

Today, the full running time between Sacramento and San Francisco is less than the ferry time involved 46 years ago. Truly, progress is marvelous, but two questions keep popping up. Do we get the same thrills out of traveling now as then, and what do we do with the time we save?

Mrs. Ralph Peer has left White Firs at Tahoma, returning to her Los Angeles residence.

Mrs. Minnie Coleman who recently returned from Fresno is now living at Crystal Bay.

CALIFORNIA LEADS IN FISHING LICENSES

California had more licensed anglers in the 1961 fiscal year than any other state in the union, the California Department of Fish and Game announced this week. There were 1,475,277 paid fishing license holders in California during this period, compared to 1,355,512 for Minnesota and 1,079,819 for Wisconsin, the second and third states.

California's total of 3,466,989 fishing licenses, tags, permits and stamps was more than twice the number issued by Minnesota, the second state, which had 1,481,275. Michigan, with 1,308,715 ranked third.

These figures were released recently by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Marriage Licenses

Nevada marriage licenses have been issued to area couples recently, including Billy Swaim, 27, of Truckee and Beverly Cormoyer, 24, of Coos Bay, Oregon.

PATROL WARNS OF SCHOOL BUS RIGHTS

Lieutenant O. P. Ledford, officer in charge of the California Highway Patrol's Truckee substation, this week cautioned motorists to be alert for school buses. "With the reopening of schools here, motorists should refresh themselves on requirements for drivers meeting or overtaking a school bus.

"The key to your action is the dual red lights mounted near the top of the bus at both front and rear. When these lights are flashing, you must not pass the bus, whether approaching it or following it. The only exception is when the bus is on the opposite side of a divided highway.

"The flashing red lights mean that the bus is about to take on or discharge youngsters who must cross the road. In any other instance, the bus driver will not use the flashing red lights, and you may pass the bus, even if it is halted.

"Of course, extreme caution is called for any time you pass a school bus," the lieutenant said.

"The California Highway Patrol inspects every school bus each year to assure that it meets safety requirements," Ledford said. "In addition, every driver is tested by the patrol before he may operate a school bus."

SMOKEY EFFECTIVE IN FIRE PREVENTION REPORT INDICATES

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — Smokey the Bear may be the corniest thing to come along since Buster Brown but he still is one of the most effective means of educating Californians on fire prevention in the forest and rangelands.

This is one of the preliminary results in a survey being made by the state division of forestry and the Pacific southwest forest and range experiment station, a branch of the U. S. Forest Service.

The survey is being made among license buying hunters in California—mainly because they are an easily identifiable group. Some of the more detailed information expected to be garnered from the study has not been computed but a preliminary finding was on just where the persons who answered questionnaires got their information on the need for fire prevention.

The three top sources were signs, forest rangers and Smokey the Bear.

R. A. Taylor, fire prevention coordinator with the state division, admitted these are overlapping categories as some persons may see Smokey on a sign. (It could be added here that quite a number of the youngsters believe all forest rangers are employees of Smokey the Bear too). The same is true for the categories of radio and television and newspapers which ranked somewhat below the top three categories—as all these media carry messages from Smokey or the forest rangers.

Generally, the returns ranked the source of fire prevention information in about this order:

Signs, Smokey the Bear, forest ranger, television, newspapers, scouting, law, magazines, school, friends, radio and business.

It's expected that state educational programs on fire prevention will take note of these results of the survey. However, Taylor pointed out that one of the reasons these returns showed probably was that concentrations of efforts have been similar to the groupings reported in the surveys.

Before the electronic data processing equipment stops clicking, the two agencies hope to have a lot more answers that may lead to reducing the number and severity of forest fires.

Taylor emphasized that the study is not one to determine who is causing fires but rather to determine the experience and knowledge of persons who use the public lands most subject to fires.

Samples of some of the findings
follow:

About 1,700 persons were asked the best way to put out a campfire and gave these responses: A. spread out the embers, cool with water, cover with dirt, 74 per cent;
B. pull the embers together, cool with water, cover with dirt, 24.9 per cent; C. spread out the burning embers and let it burn itself out, 1 per cent; and D. let it alone and it will burn itself out, .4 per cent.

The report said a number of the respondents guessed on an answer. It said there was a higher rate of incorrect answers among respondents who were skilled or semi-skilled workers.

Another question was asked as to the chief cause of fires and 66.3 per cent guessed smoker's cigarettes and matches—the correct answer. Another 20.5 per cent chose lightning although the division admitted lightning was a higher cause in some areas of the state. But only 34.6 per cent of the total persons answering said they were sure they had the right answer.

Some of the other results included: about 20 per cent did not know what watersheds were; 96.3 per cent knew what humidity was;
99.2 per cent knew that windy weather made campfires more dangerous; 97.5 per cent knew that prevention of man-caused fires depends on better cooperation and recognition of personal responsibility.

DISTRICT CONTINUES EFFORTS TO OBTAIN POWER FROM CVP

Despite a refusal by the Pacific Gas & Electric Company to wheel power from the Trinity Project for consumption by the Truckee Public Utility District, Manager Francis Longo of the district said this week he will continue to fight for the transmission and that the district will not relinquish its application for power from the Central Valley Project.

Longo said he was in receipt of a letter from H. P. Dugan, regional director of the bureau of reclamation, which said the PG&E will not transmit the power to Norden as desired by the district. This is in spite of the fact that the company maintains lines to the summit for servicing other customers.

They also wheel power to the Plumas-Sierra Electric Cooperative, Longo said and asked Dugan: "If wheeling can be provided for one 'preference customer' why not another? Surely this point has been given some consideration and thought, as a definite parallel exists. We do not feel that Pacific Gas and Electric could justify their refusal to wheel to this dis-

AIR LINES WILL AID AREA SKI RESORTS

TAHOE CITY — Dave Holt, agency and tour manager for Western Air Lines, and Gordon Hudson, district manager for Sacramento and Reno, for that company, toured the North Sierra-Lake Tahoe ski complex during this past weekend in advance of a forthcoming Western Air Lines air-ski-tour package announcement for this area.

The package will comprise the Lake Tahoe regions four major ski resorts, Squaw Valley, Heavenly Valley, Alpine Meadows and Sugar Bowl, and includes resort hotel accommodations, air transportation, and ground transfers between all package elements. Holt, spokesman for Western Air Lines, told local civic representatives that he was surprised to find the variety of activities available in this ski complex and added, that in his own opinion, it was second to none in the world.

He also stated that Western Air Lines would participate with local business interests in developing and promoting tour business for all seasons in the area.

A sheep-borne radio-transmitting set giving off periodic "beeps" has been designed to enable Australian farmers to locate flocks with a direction-finder set.

tract consistently in the face of the existing wheeling arrangement to Plumas-Sierra."

Longo said that the application for 6,000 kw of power by the district will not be dropped and that every effort will be continued to bring this load to the lines of the local district.

In answer to the implication that this district is beyond the limits of the wheeling service provided by PG&E, Longo wrote:

"We are not satisfied with Pacific Gas and Electric's expressed opinion as to whose area Truckee Public Utility is in. Truckee Public Utility District's boundaries were established by vote of the people and Acts of the California legislature, and could not be considered as part of any utilities area, but rather a part of the State of California. The question becomes a moot point, however, if Pacific Gas and Electric established limits and boundaries to suit its own whims and fancies."

Longo said that Representative Harold T. Johnson is vitally interested in the matter and has promised the district his full support.

CHANGE IN DIALING CODE WILL START IN DISTRICT NEXT YEAR

Some residents of the Lake Tahoe area will start getting All-Number Calling (ANC) phone numbers next February as the first step in the introduction of the new numbering system here, Pacific Telephone Manager J. C. Domergue said today.

All people starting or transferring telephone service in the area after February 1 will get the new seven-digit phone numbers, Domergue said. When the new directory is issued in June, all phone listings will be changed to ANC.

At that time the LUther prefix will be changed to 587, the LUther prefix to 546, the JUniper numbers to 583 and the Garfield prefix to 426, Domergue explained.

Since ANC was first introduced in California more than two years ago, nearly 1.5 million numbers or more than 20 per cent of the company's telephones, have had the letters replaced with numbers, Domergue said.

Within the next three years, however, everyone is expected to have the new numbers.

"We regret seeing the prefixes go," Domergue said, "but have no choice if we are to meet the growing demand of telephone service."

In the last 20 years, the number of telephones in the United States has more than tripled. By 1975, the phone company estimates that the number of phones will soar to 160 million or more than double the number now in service.

"As a result of this growth, we are facing a shortage of telephone prefixes," Domergue explained.

"Under the old numbering system, some letter combinations on the phone dial won't begin a word or name in the English language. And because there are no letters around the 'I' or 'O' holes, these can't be used for prefixes."

"ANC will take care of our needs into the next century because of the greater number of dialing combinations it offers."

He said many alternatives were

Hi there! The last of the tournaments are over and Mike Popovich was the winner in his game with Bob Tonini of the first flight.

They will each be presented a trophy along with the others I mentioned last week. This will be done at the party next Saturday, the 6th, at the Capitol and if you haven't been approached to buy your tickets, just see any officer in the Country Club. They are $4 each person and this will include a delicious dinner, dancing to a very nice orchestra and the works.

Remember, it's the Capitol Saturday night with cocktail hour beginning at 7 and dinner around 8. You don't have to be a member to attend. Guests are welcome. We want a big, big crowd. It will be the last affair of the season so let's wind it up with a bang—Seems sad to look at the course all locked up but old man winter is already setting in and the play had dwindled to practically carefully considered before it became clear that ANC was the most practical solution.

"None of these was found to be as workable as ANC. They either were not satisfactory from the customer's point of view, did not meet the need for more numbers or were not technically feasible."

In addition to meeting the need for growth, Domergue cited other features of ANC.

Based on experiences in cities which have had ANC for a while, the company expects wrong numbers to decrease when the adoption of All-Number Calling is completed. This is despite the common belief that all numbers are harder to remember.

The confusion which exists between certain letters and numbers such as the letter "I" and the number 1 and the letter "O" and the number 0 will be eliminated, Domergue said. About half the dialing errors are the result of this confusion.

Other problems such as sound alike letters (B and P) and sound alike names (Mitchell and Mutual) will also disappear.

nothing—so—now we must sit back and wait out the cold, snowy months and pray they go quickly.

The Lions Club put on a very nice affair at the Ponderosa last Sunday to wind up all the tournaments. Eva Besio took the trophy for the ladies while Mike Popovich and Craig Robinson flipped a coin as they tied for first place and Craig won the flip for the guest flight trophy. Carson White was the club winner.

They had a wonderful barbecue on the pit that they originally built. Now all the excitement is over the Dodgers and the Giants. By the time you read this, it will be decided but several couples, including the Carrolls, the Walkers and the Stewarts flew down Sunday evening to catch the first game of this play-off. Naturally, everyone is hoping for a Giants win and many I've talked to plan to see the series if they do.

This will be my last article for at least awhile. We are taking off for another hunting trip in Wyoming next Tuesday so figure this should wind it up . . . if anything exciting comes up in the future, I'll be talking to you again . . . meantime, have a nice winter.

Opening the scriptural selections is this verse from Isaiah: "Fear thou not for I am with thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness."

A correlative citation to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "Whatever is governed by God, is never for an instant deprived of the light and might of intelligence and Life" (p. 215).

The golden text is from II Timothy: "God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

DON BECK NEW HEAD OF TAHOE CHAMBER

CRYSTAL BAY — Directors of the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce named Don Beck, Tahoe Vista realtor, to head their organization as president for the coming fiscal year. Beck has been a director of the chamber and chairman of its promotion and advertising committee for the past 12 months.

Other officers elected for new chamber year were: Carlton Kornske, first vice president; Mrs. Wayne Poulsen, second vice president; Mrs. Gordon Brown, secretary; Bethel Van Tassel, treasurer and Robert Daneri, executive committee member at large. General membership of the chamber had previously selected Tim Sullivan and Wendell Russell, as new four-year directors. Robert Daneri and William Briner were re-elected to serve as chamber board members.

In assuming his new post as president, Beck pledged to continue the vigorous program initiated by the chamber just nine months earlier, which resulted in doubling the organization's income and keeping expenses within its ability to pay as it produced publicity and programs for the area.

Directors heard committee reports and resolved to investigate the high level freeway proposed for the west shore of Lake Tahoe. Directors "viewed with alarm" the proposition that freeways, as conceived for travel between metropolitan districts should be developed around a "destination area" such as the scenic wonder, Lake Tahoe. The highway committee of the chamber was directed to study the state proposal and report to the next board meeting.

The Annual Shank's Cove Deer Hunting Expedition is hanging their collective head in shame—no deer, no deer liver party and no reason to give their wives for going again next year. And to shame them further, Parky Bechdolt, son of one of the members of the week-long party, came up for one day only and bagged himself a buck.

Members of the expedition were Bob Pomin, Jay Shontz, Bill Bechdolt, Tony Donadio, Bill Connors, Carl Bechdolt, Jr., Walt Finke and Bud Meixner.

PLANNERS ACT ON LOCAL BUILDINGS IN LAST WEEK'S MEET

The Nevada County Planning Commission last week took action on local applications as follows:

Donner Lake Development Company's final subdivision map of Donner Terrace Unit No. 1 containing 33 lots on the south side of Donner Lake received the planning commission's approval. The map now goes to the board of supervisors for their acceptance for recording.

Conditional approval, in conformance with the recommendations of the U. S. Forest, was granted the tentative map of Prospector Lake Estates Unit No. 1, located southwest of Hobart Mills. Clinton Brines of Truckee is the owner of the 73 lot subdivision.

Approval was given to the use permit application of Raymond Crandall to construct a 4-unit trailer court south of Hill Top Lodge in Truckee.

Applications of Babette Hauelsen and Lee Streeper for "R-1" uses in the "C" zone at Donner Lake also received approval. The planning commission voted to recommend approval by the board of supervisors of a variance, by application of Miss Hauelsen, to reduce the required 20 foot front yard setback to 10 feet on U. S. 40 because of the hardship that it would not be possible to build on the small lot unless the variance was granted.

Planning Director Bill Roberts told the commission that complaints had been received from the Donner area indicating dissatisfaction with the requirement to obtain a use permit for "R-1" uses in the "C" zone. He pointed out that an excessive amount of land was zoned for "C" uses in locations which are more suitable and in demand for residential purposes, and suggested that residents should petition the commission to have portions of the area rezoned to "R-1" or "R-2" to alleviate the problem.

Applications of Guadalupe L. Luna and Gustave Huneke for use permits for trailer parking on Southern Pacific land in Truckee were continued pending a final report from the state division of housing.

Ralph Peer, II, who has been attending school at New Hampshire has enrolled as a student at Stanford University.

CONGRESSMAN H. T. JOHNSON

Johnson To Open Election Campaign

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman Harold T. (Bizz) Johnson, seeking re-election as Representative of the 2nd, mountain-valley district, today announced he would not open his re-election campaign until after final adjournment of the 87th Congress probably in October.

"My first responsibility," Representative Johnson declared, "is to remain here in Washington until the Congress completes its work. We have many vital issues to be decided, including the Cuban situation, youth conservation corps, drug controls, final action on reciprocal trade, taxation, farm legislation, aid to education, foreign affairs, and several appropriation measures including that which funds the various public works projects under way in the second district.

The people of the second district entrusted me with the responsibility of representing them throughout the 87th Congress. This I shall do, for the only way that their voice can be heard in the house of representatives is through my presence and my vote."

Congressman Johnson declared that after final adjournment, he would return to California and in the brief time remaining before the November elections would visit each of the 19 counties of the district and discuss the record of the 87th Congress and the issues which will face the 88th.

CUSTOM-TAILORED

When your doctor prescribes medicine for you it is for you alone. It is like a custom-tailored suit. It fits the person it is made for but is never quite right for anybody else. So, if a member of your family or a friend becomes sick, it would, of course, be unwise to give your prescription to them.

Medicine prescribed for an adult, even in reduced dose, could be dangerous for a child. On the other hand, medicine prescribed for a child may be ineffective for an adult even when the dosage is increased. The person taking someone else's medicine may be lulled into a false sense of security which could permit the illness to get worse.
